

Work Experience Services

Work Experience Services represent opportunities for work that contribute to an individual's overall career development. Work Experience services include training to assist the individual with developing work skills, an understanding of the work environment and responsibilities, emotional and physical tolerances necessary for a variety of jobs, and increased stamina. This service provides the individual with information on how she/he performs in a work setting.